Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Animal trainer, Brandon McMillan operates a training facility know as the Lucky Dog Ranch where his mission is to rescue hard-to love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. In order to accomplish his goal, McMillan must investigate what each animal needs to find the appropriate method to retrain them, so that the animals will make welcome family members. Through watching his interactions with these animals, the viewer is encouraged to be sensitive to our own and others behavior, and shown how we as individuals can make a difference. This program aired on our main digital channel.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non- broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During the 2nd quarter of 2016, KMEG TV aired PSA's of educational and informational value to children and the general public. The PSA topics included Autism, Bullying, College, Fatherhood, Love of Family, Believing in one self, and Pet ownership. These PSA's help children and viewers to identify problems and handle difficult situations as well as becoming a better person. This quarter the station also did a tour for The Crittenton Center (a shelter for abused children) and our anchors were judges at Camp High Hopes (a camp for disabled) Rib Fest fundraiser.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This program features actual cases of missing individuals across the country. Assisted by local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies, as well as the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the program interviews friends, family and investigators involved with the cases. The program emphasizes taking responsibility for personal safety and promotes situational awareness. Each episode showcases safety tips, a safety quiz, and an instructional message from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. This program will air on our secondary digital channel.
