Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This series is based on a book series by author/author Bob Kolar. It is set on a space station in a unknown solar system. The station is populated by five animal characters and one 3-3y3e octopus. Each episode begins with an everyday conversation/incident that grows into a predicament requiring a solution. These issues and resolutions resonate for our preschool audience. Through comedy and zippy action, the target audience sees how the characters learn lessons for practical living such as how to keep track of things that belong to you, practice good habits, clean up a space when you have made a mess and resist the urge to blame others.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Marshall family set out for a camping trip aboard their humble raft, but a chance encounter with a 1,000-foot waterfall plunged them into an alternate universe. Another imaginative Sid & Marty Krofft production, Land of the Lost put the family in a jungle world of no definite place and time, where they tried to keep one step ahead of dinosaurs and Sleestacks, and tried to make their way home. It's a terrific blend of sci-fi, fantasy and live action adventure. This program shows our audience how working together as a family can help them overcome the many obstacles put in front of them as they try to get home.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This show stars three space aliens--Fleeker, Flo and Boomer, who have been sent to Earth to explore, investigate, discover and report their findings to their superiors at Floogal headquarters. The diminutive Floogals are no taller than a large safety pin and their visual perspective is literally the point of view of the show. With the multiple challenges of their size and ignorance of all things human. The Floogals have a lot of work on their hands. They are engaged in the dual processes of discovery as nothing is familiar on Earth. Much like young children, they begin by encountering something new and then go through a comedic multi-step process of watching, listening, touching, and note taking until they've figured out what and how their new discovery fits into the human universe.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chica is a five-year old chick who spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distractibility, judgement, and inter-personal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure-a fantasy transformation to animation--where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development, and Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts, and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Program Title	The Chica Show
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Sat/12p
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	2 years to 5 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Chica is a five-year old chick who spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distractibility, judgement, and inter-personal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure-a fantasy transformation to animation--where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development, and Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts, and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.
