Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During 1st Quarter 2017 WNUV aired and produced numerous PSAs directly relating to and serving the educational and informational needs of children. WNUV celebrates Black History with our annual Champions of Courage campaign, an essay competition inviting student grades 6 to 12 to write an essay saluting their Champion of Courage who best represents the teachings of Dr. King. Twenty finalists were selected from about 5,000 essay entries from schools throughout the viewing area. The finalists present their essays on WNUV and received savings bonds. An awards breakfast was held in early February where the top 3 winners received additional savings bonds and money for their school. WNUV broadcasts a weekly community calendar to promote community events for children throughout our entire viewing area. The station produced BMore Healthy Expo took place on Saturday, March 18th at the Baltimore Convention Center. The event offered something for every age and every interest and engages, entertains, educates and empowers families to take actions and make choices to be more healthy. Best of all, The BMore Healthy Expo connects viewers with community resources to help them reach their health and wellness goals! The BMore Healthy Expo features screenings for all ages, healthy food and cooking zone, fun and fit kids zone, financial fitness, healthy homes and healthy neighborhoods, health and wellness career expo, and lets play zone. Three stages of live, interactive workouts, performances, and celebrity appearances.
