Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	[32.3 - This TV] "Whaddyado" is designed to educate, inform, inspire and entertain teens, while providing opportunities to learn life lessons they would otherwise not be open to receive. Teens are exposed to real life situations during reenactments where developing important life saving skills is examined. By exposing the teen viewer to perilous situations which have already occurred, then using interviews with the participants and instructions from experts, they are shown what the proper reaction should be when faced with similar life-threatening circumstances. The show also works to minimize the viewer's belief in their immortality, a priceless lesson for all teens. In the show's "moral dilemma" segment, teens are given a scenario which raises moral questions for which they're provided an expert's analysis of the costs and benefits of various courses of action, tackling the challenge head on. All in all, Whaddyado works to help develop the moral fiber of our nation's teens, each segment welcoming the opportunity for teens who seek to define themselves.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	[32.1] "Animal Atlas" introduces young viewers to every kind of animal imaginable, from the familiar to the astounding, from the Americas, Africa, Asia, Australia, and other areas in between. The show promotes a better understanding as to how various animal species live, and what they need to survive. The show also looks at how family units operate (i.e., a pride of lions, school of fish). Some episodes explore animal diet, locomotion, adaptation, and how animals care for their young. Animal Atlas also informs about endangered species, and teaches how to support wildlife conservation. For a population of young viewers attuned to the importance of going green, Animal Atlas is not only entertaining--it is culturally relevant and important.

Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Sunday, 9a & 9:30a, 4/2-6/25/17
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	26
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	[32.3 - This TV] "Whaddyado" is designed to educate, inform, inspire and entertain teens, while providing opportunities to learn life lessons they would otherwise not be open to receive. Teens are exposed to real life situations during reenactments where developing important life saving skills is examined. By exposing the teen viewer to perilous situations which have already occurred, then, using interviews with the participants and instructions from experts, they are shown what the proper reaction should be when faced with similar life-threatening circumstances. The show also works to minimize the viewer's belief in their immortality, a priceless lesson for all teens. In the show's "moral dilemma" segment, teens are given a scenario which raises moral questions for which they're provided an expert's analysis of the costs and benefits of various courses of action, tackling the challenge head on. All in all, Whaddyado works to help develop the moral fiber of our nation's teens, each segment welcoming the opportunity for teens who seek to define themselves.
