Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Veggie Tales serves the educational and informational needs of children as a significant purpose by providing answers to tough situations children might have with moral answers portrayed by recurring animated fruit and vegetable characters. The arc of each story addresses difficult situations children might have by following a standard format where a moral issue is posited in the opening counter-top sequence, either through a viewer question or an issue brought up by Bob or Larry the main characters, followed by one or more "films" that address the issue, with a Silly Song in the middle. Veggie Tales satisfies the FCC Core Programming requirement because is serves the educational and information needs of children as it's sole purpose, is 30 minutes in length, airs between 7am and 10pm, is regularly scheduled weekly, and is identified by the display of the symbol "E/I" on the television screen throughout the program.
