Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C. F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	CBS Austin airs a variety of Public Service Announcements (PSAs) in support of important children's issues such as fighting obesity, the importance of staying in school and the importance of exercise. CBS Austin also provides information to educate children on the many careers in the broadcast field and donates to community events benefiting children in our area. Additionally, on July 29, 2017, CBS-Austin and Telemundo Austin hosted our annual Back-to-School Back-Pack Give-away benefitting under privileged youths attending area school systems. Each student was given a back-pack filled with the required school supplies to start the new school year. More than 1100 student back-packs were distributed at the event this year. Also in the 3rd Quarter, Chief Meteorologist Chikabe Windler participated as a judge in the 13th Annual Trick Olympics on August 5, 2017 benefitting CASA of Travis County, a child advocacy organization; as well as participating in the Annual Schlotsky's Bun Run on September 24, 2017 benefitting the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Chikabe Windler also emceed the Ronald McDonald House Charities "Red Shoe" Luncheon on September 19, 2017 benefitting families of critically ill children.
