Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	In the Fourth Quarter 2017, WNJX-TV broadcasted a significant amount of public service announcements for an antidrug campaign, alcoholism disease, homeless, cyber bulling, domestic violence, child abuse, children with special needs, environmental, emergency plan, sports and health related issues such as, prevention H1N1, ZIKA and cancer and renal disease. On September 20, 2017, WNJX-TV went silent as a result of damage caused by Hurricane Maria. Since that time, except for a brief interruption in the aftermath of the storm, the WAPA-TV and WAPA 4.2 programming, including the programming identified in this report, has aired on the multicast channels of other stations in the market.
