Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"WIMZIE'S HOUSE" is a puppet-based, half hour TV series featuring Wimzie, a little girl monster, who lives with her parents, grandma and baby brother and her friends who come over the day. Each story is a complete dramatic episode & the stories feature the puppet characters in situations with themes that are important to the development of young children. Each show has songs which reinforce these themes. In addition to the main story, each show opens with one of the puppet characters introducing himself/herself in a brief video bio. Each show ends with two short segments. One is called "Wimzie's Reflections". These one minute pieces feature Wimzie, in her pajamas and ready for bed with one of the grown-up puppet characters. In the "reflection, Wimzie reviews something that happened during the day and is guided by the grown-up to an understanding of that show's theme. The second short segment, which comes after the credits, is called "Tips". In these 30 second segments the puppet children offer tips on the following issues: nap time; talking without permission; hitting; no means no; inside and outside voices; excluding others; answering the phone; answering the door; eating too fast; crossing the street; dealing with strange animals; saying you're sorry; sneezing; brushing your teeth; and washing your hands.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"The Busy World of Richard Scarry" is a television adaption of Richard Scarry's hundreds of original stories and his wonderfully colorful characters. Each half hour episode is made up of 3 stories; 2 of which are set in BUSYTOWN, the living, working, and playing place of Richard Scarry characters, while the third story is from Richard Scarry's BUSY BUSY WORLD featuring international characters as they appeared in the original stories. Each episode features an original song. The 3 stories are separated by two 1 minute educational interstitials, hosted by Lowly, the series Spokesworm, who demonstrates "How Things Work" in one interstitial, and important tips on "How To Be Safe" in the other.
