Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F. R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The list of public service announcements (07/01/18-09/30/2018) is designed specifically for children that aired this quarter are available in KTMD's public file. In connection with the on air public service announcement , content includes: video of current public service announcement, a general campaign overview, partnering agencies referenced in the PSA's. The site includes a comprehensive list of the campaign's accolades, in any further changes are made to schedule. KTMD will update the Children's Report accordingly. During the third quarter Telemundo Houston participated in 3 back to school fairs. We partnered with La Rosa Family service the fair had about 5,000 attendees. The fair provided free health screenings, our sports anchor Ubaldo Martinez was onsite providing live coverage, and our marketing team provided an onsite activation. Ubaldo and our marketing team gave free back packs, and school supplies to students. We participated at the Back to School Jam where health screenings, and giveaways were provided to parents and students. Telemundo Houston also participated at the Traders Village Back to School event. This event is held annually and it provides free school supplies, and health and human services to children/students in Houston. Telemundo Houston supported this event with live news coverage, onsite activation, and also provided drawstring school bags for the students. Telemundo Houston was also a part of the CFISD leadership conference which is a series of workshops and discussions of best practices to be successful,and this was attended by high school seniors that excel in all areas academically. Also, we had a back to school phone bank with our partners at KPRC. Our anchor Antonio Hernandez was onsite providing live coverage, and encouraging our viewers to call in for any questions they had about the school year. The phone bank answered parents questions about enrollment, schools choices, and district policies. Our meteorologist, Carlos Robles, participated at Red Duke Elementary Career Day. Carlos presented and spoke to students about his career start, media, and answered all media/ meteorologist questions.
