Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During this quarter KATU supported the educational and informational needs of children through the launch of a multi-platform campaign, on-air news stories, local programming, station tours and digital information. KATU's Kind is Better movement created a youth advisory board to get input and ideas on how to spread kindness in their schools and communities. The station also aired Kind is Better segments in local programming during the quarter as well as producing PSAs and a one-minute vignette. KATU News covered stories including a local tech company visiting and teaching elementary kids about engineering and science in their classroom through the S.T.E.M. program, the new exhibit at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, and safety for kids. Other segments that aired this quarter in the station's news include "Kids Doing Good", "Leaders in Learning" and "Everyday Heroes". This quarter the station hosted 5 group tours of its facilities that included elementary and middle school children as well as Girl Scouts.
