Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Much of the food Americans eat is produced by farmers and ranchers in the country's heartland, but many children don't know how it's produced. "America's Heartland" provides information about the people and processes responsible for the availability of food and fuel across the country and around the world. The show's reporters and producers tell stories in topics that include farm families, consumer issues, animal welfare and crop sustainability. Children will learn about the production of the food and fuel they consume. Some episodes also take the show abroad to countries such as Egypt and Taiwan, to show the impact American agriculture has on the global economy. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE MAIN DIGITAL STREAM.)

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The licensee sponsors public appearances by the news anchors, meteorologists and San Antonio Living hosts to local schools to promote the importance of education and community service. Our annual Food 4 SA food drive was conducted in the month of November. Teaming with our partners at SSFCU we gathered more than 2,710,000 pounds of food that will be distributed by the Food Bank to help needy local families over the holiday season. In November we also reached out goal of selling 9500 tickets to the St Jude's Dream Home, raising $950,000 for St Jude's Children's Hospital.
