| Describe theeducationalandinformationalobjective ofthe programand how itmeets thedefinition ofCoreProgramming. | Animal trainer Brandon McMilan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. In order to accomplish his goal McMilan must investigate what each animal needs to find the appropriate method to retrain them so that the animals will make welcome family members. Through watching his interactions with these animals the viewer is encouraged to be sensitive to our own and other's behavior and shown how we as individuals can make a difference. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Hosted by Mo Rocca this program is a weekly celebration of the inventor's spirit from historic scientific pioneers throughout past centuries to the forward-looking visionaries of today. Each episode inspires young viewers to dream, create and innovate by telling the dramatic stories behind the world's greatest inventions and the perseverance, passion and price required to bring them to life. Episode examples include innovators who have condensed a TV satellite truck into a backpack , how solar roads could power the world and a 16-year-old who invented a battery-free flashlight. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Animal trainer Brandon McMilan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch where his mission is to rescue hard-to-love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. In order to accomplish his goal McMilan must investigate what each animal needs to find the appropriate method to retrain them so that the animals will make welcome family members. Through watching his interactions with these animals the viewer is encouraged to be sensitive to our own and other's behavior and shown how we as individuals can make a difference. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This is an animated program that furthers the educational and informational needs of children by promoting the social and emotional goals of independence, empathy and diversity. The program also serves the cognitive and intellectual needs of children by teaching them about bio-diversity and the importance of protecting nature. The main character Maya is a free spirit with a curious demeanor and fondness for discovery. With her eagerness for adventure, she lives free in the meadow because the world is just too big and too fascinating to stay in the bee hive. Through Maya's open-mindedness children foster their curiosity and learn to respect others. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE SECONDARY DIGITAL STREAM.) |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This is an animated program that furthers the educational and informational needs of children by promoting the social and emotional goals of independence, empathy and diversity. The program also serves the cognitive and intellectual needs of children by teaching them about bio-diversity and the importance of protecting nature. The main character Maya is a free spirit with a curious demeanor and fondness for discovery. With her eagerness for adventure, she lives free in the meadow because the world is just too big and too fascinating to stay in the bee hive. Through Maya's open-mindedness children foster their curiosity and learn to respect others. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE SECONDARY DIGITAL STREAM.) | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This program is an animated series about the childhood adventures of a six year girl named Nina, her family and neighborhood. The program celebrates multiculturalism and family in Nina's close-knit household where she's cared for by her parents and her grandmother. Elements of their Latino heritage are prominent. Its multilingual approach incorporates English, some Spanish and American Sign Language. Children learn inclusiveness as well as the value of communicating across multiple languages and appreciating other cultures. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE SECONDARY DIGITAL STREAM.) |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This program is an animated series about the childhood adventures of a six year girl named Nina, her family and neighborhood. The program celebrates multiculturalism and family in Nina's close-knit household, where she's cared for by her parents and her grandmother. Elements of their Latino heritage are prominent. Its multilingual approach incorporates English, some Spanish and American Sign Language. Children learn inclusiveness, as well as the value of communicating across multiple languages and appreciating other cultures. (THIS PROGRAM AIRED ON THE SECONDARY DIGITAL STREAM.) |

| Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | CBS Austin airs a variety of Public Service Announcements (PSAs) in support of important children's issues such as fighting obesity, the importance of staying in school and the importance of exercise. CBS Austin also provides information to educate children on the many careers in the broadcast field and donates to community events benefiting children in our area. Additionally, in Ocotber (10/12/17) CBS-Austin Chief Meterologist Chikage Windler conducted a "Weather Talk" among students at Bee Caves Elementary School (Lake Travis ISD), as well as at Camacho Elementary School (Leander ISN) in November (11/17 /17). |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Animal trainer, Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch where his mission is to rescue hard-to love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. In order to accomplish his goal, McMillan must investigate what each animal needs to find the appropriate method to retrain them so that they will make welcome members in a family. Through watching his interaction with these animals, the viewer is encouraged to be sensitive to our own and other's behavior as well as showing how we as individuals can make a difference. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This program shows a vet at work caring and treating a variety of animals. The viewer is shown what it takes to keep animals healthy from elective procedures used as part of long-term treatments to specialist services when necessary which involve the most intricate and technologically advanced surgery. The program also deals with the human owners and how they approach the care of their pets. (THIS PROGRAM WILL AIR ON THE MAIN DIGITAL STREAM. ) |

| Describe theeducational andinformationalobjective of theprogram and howit meets thedefinition of CoreProgramming. | This program is hosted by Mo Rocca of CBS Sunday Morning and is a weekly celebration of the inventor's spirit; from historic scientific pioneers throughout past centuries to the forward-looking visionaries of today. Each episode tells the dramatic stories behind the world's greatest inventions and the perseverance, passion and price required to bring them to life. Featuring "What if it Never Happened", "Innovation by Accident" and a strong focus on "Junior Geniuses" who are changing the face of technology, this series appeals to young viewers and their families. | Describe theeducationalandinformationalobjective of theprogram andhow it meetsthe definition ofCoreProgramming. | This program is inspired by real-life cases handled by the United States Postal Inspection Service. In the program, a teenage boy who is paralyzed due to a car accident, works as an intern at the U.S. Postal Inspector's lab assisting his U.S. Postal Inspector mom in solving crimes which include internet scams, identity and mail theft, and consumer fraud. The program educates young people about making the right choices in their daily lives, encourages open communication between teens and parents and includes positive messaging regarding living with disabilities, overcoming challenges, beating the odds and the power of perseverance. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Animal trainer, Brandon McMillan operates a training facility known as the Lucky Dog Ranch where his mission is to rescue hard-to love and untrained dogs and find them homes. The show focuses on exercising responsibility and on developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Life lessons are an integral part of the theme of rescuing these animals from death and providing a second chance for life. In order to accomplish his goal, McMillan must investigate what each animal needs to find the appropriate method to retrain them so that they will make welcome members in a family. Through watching his interaction with these animals, the viewer is encouraged to be sensitive to our own and other's behavior as well as showing how we as individuals can make a difference. | Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | This program follow Dr. Chris Brown as he travels the world exploring animals in their natural habitat. The program will consist of three segments, following the doctor as he treats various animals that are in trouble and offering the viewer opportunities to understand the challenges a veterinarian daily faces. The series offers a view into careers in and responsibility for taking care of pets, but also into problem solving strategies and behaviors. | Describe theeducationalandinformationalobjective ofthe programand how itmeets thedefinition ofCoreProgramming. | The key objective of this program is to familiarize children with the animals of the North American continent, their interaction with other animals, and their environment. Throughout the series, emphasis is placed upon protecting endangered species and the impact that humans have while interacting in their environment. The goal of this program is for the viewer to achieve a greater understanding of nature and specific animal species, with the aid of up-close and detailed photography throughout the program. Through this understanding, it is hoped that viewers will better related to the natural environment in North America and learn to protect North America's animal species.
