Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL ATLAS matches the evolved visual intelligence of the young audience by building content with short clips and weaving them together in a narrative that keep a viewer engaged with a compelling narrative overview. The animal kingdom has an innate richness of color, form and motion. This series is built from that richness. The thread that links the clips together is the connection between the differing members of the animal kingdom, including our own species. In a compelling blend, animal examples are pulled from both common experience (horse, cat), and exotic animals like the clouded leopard or the red panda. As the nature of animals is explored, the content and clarity creates a program of exceptional education value. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturdays 11:00-11:30 AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL ATLAS matches the evolved visual intelligence of the young audience by building content with short clips and weaving them together in a narrative that keep a viewer engaged with a compelling narrative overview. The animal kingdom has an innate richness of color, form and motion. This series is built from that richness. The thread that links the clips together is the connection between the differing members of the animal kingdom, including our own species. In a compelling blend, animal examples are pulled from both common experience (horse, cat), and exotic animals like the clouded leopard or the red panda. As the nature of animals is explored, the content and clarity creates a program of exceptional education value. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
