Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	NOODLE AND DOODLE is an instructional series that features creating art projects and cooking projects around a specific theme. The show is hosted by Sean, who drives around in a double-decker bus fully equipped with art supplies, and a kitchen, all ready for any assignment. The projects encourage parent engagement and often feature families working together to make something for display in the child's home. Sean is accompanied by Doggity, an every-faithful Beagle dog, who transforms into an animated character during interstitial trips to a parallel universe and kitchen full of prank playing animated characters. While the show will be enjoyed by preschoolers, the projects are also very practical and engaging to implement for children ages 5-8. The art projects typically feature lessons on recycling materials for re-use in making art and always demonstrate that creativity can transform something intended for one purpose into something useful to achieve a completely different goal.

Total times aired	27
Number of Preemptions	1
Number of Preemptions for other than Breaking News
Number of Preemptions Rescheduled	1
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	5 years to 8 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	LAZY TOWN promotes fitness and healthful habits for children of preschool and primary grades. It takes place in an imaginary setting, Lazy Town, and most episodes relate children's eating and fitness habits to problem solving in their "real world." The lead character, Stephanie, guides the audience through the story. She and her best friends, a group of "human" puppets reside in Lazy Town, where her uncle is Mayor Milford Meanswell. The underground spy and influencer who defines the ethos of Lazy Town is Robbie Rotten, and he is determined to ruin the health and fitness practices of Stephanie and her friends. When the kids get into difficulties with Robbie Rotten, it is Sportacus, gymnast/athlete, who comes to the rescue from his home in a spaceship that hovers over earth, prepared to answer to any call for help. The ever-present theme of Lazy Town is to eat "sports candy" which consists of fruits and vegetables, get sufficient sleep, and go outside and engage in a wide range of physical activities, from playing games and holding athletic competitions, to building forts and play structures.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Leyendo Juntos- Leyendo Juntos is a program dedicated to promote early literacy in hispanic youth and promote family unity among our viewers. Ronald McDonald makes appearances throughout the year at various library branches in Dallas and Ft Worth for a interactive story hour with children and their families. We produce and broadcast promotional spots announcing each visit as well as promote in our Community Calendar. Leyendo Juntos was established by us and is sponsored by McDonald's and the Dallas and Ft Worth Public Libraries. Boys & Girls Club- Boys & Girls Club is a program dedicated to enabling all young people, especially those who need them the most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. Our partnership consists of assisting in their outreach and recruitment efforts by creating awareness of the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Dallas' efforts that impact Hispanic youth among our viewers, the Dallas Cowboys and our business partners. We also produced and broadcast various three (3) minute segments within our thirty (30) minute Dallas Cowboys weekly show.
