Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Aqua Kids provides a unique vehicle for young people to learn about the diversity of marine animals around the world, emphasizing the importance of preserving fragile aquatic habitats and encouraging children to take an active role in protecting the future of their community and the world. The program provides a window into the management and preservation of unique habitats and species through the eyes of kids and their hands-on collaboration with science researchers and educators. The messages delivered by Aqua Kids are given by a creative and resourceful host, Molly McKinney, whose scientific background is evident in the show. The other young hosts, whose ages range from pre-teen to late teens, are equally entertaining and informative. The young viewers identify with these young hosts and imagine themselves in the role of the scientist and as someone who could have a positive impact on the environment. The format of young student scientists presenting information on location in a variety of aquatic settings is both entertaining and informative.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Howdy Doody is a 1975 series which is known to its viewers for Buffalo Bob in his cowboy attire and a cast of human characters such as Clarabell the Clown and Chief Thunderthud as well as puppets (i.e., Howdy Doody, Dilly Dally, Flub-a-Dub, etc.). Children sat on stage in the Peanut Gallery, thus making this show a forerunner of interactive programming we enjoy today. The primary value of the series is to educate and entertain elementary school-aged children. In addition, both older children and monitoring adults will find this series amusing and quite charming as Howdy Doody is a timeless character who has an interactive quality. Educationally, the series offers opportunities for parents and teachers to teach lessons related to language, character development, science, and listening skills. In accordance with the 1990 Children's Television Act (ATC) intended to increase educational and informational programming for children on television, HOWDY DOODY clearly meets the goals of providing children with a television show that meets CORE requirements of the FCC as follows: 1. Issues such as bullying, establishing trust and courtesy are faced and resolved in the episodes. 2. Responsibility is presented in a positive and encouraging manner. 3. Making choices in life, mastery of attachment and separation are emphasized in each episode. 4. Issues of competition and loyalty are conveyed throughout the series.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	It's fun. . . It's colorful. . . It's magical. . . It's musical. . . It's educational. . . It teaches values and celebrates faith. . . And it does all that in three languages at once! Introducing Dr. Wonder's Workshop, the first weekly Christian television series ever produced where everyone uses American Sign Language! This program has been designed from the ground up to be the most accessible children's educational TV series ever developed. Not only will the show be voiced in English and captioned in English and Spanish, but every line, every song, every story will also be signed. This program has everything you've come to expect in a high quality children's educational television show: Interesting stories with fun, colorful characters; Creative original music; Language development; and instruction on the importance of developing positive life values such as honesty, integrity, and responsibility. But it also includes another dimension not found in most educational television. Dr. Wonder's Workshop also address issues of faith. Every program will include a Bible Story and an object lesson to show the children that God is just as relevant today as He ever was! The show will never be "preachy", but in tender loving ways Dr Wonder and his friends will unapologetically show the children that God knows them, He loves them, and they are precious to Him. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, and has educating and informing children as a significant purpose.

It's educational. . . It teaches values and celebrates faith. . . And it does all that in three languages at once! Introducing Dr. Wonder's Workshop, the first weekly Christian television series ever produced where everyone uses American Sign Language! This program has been designed from the ground up to be the most accessible children's educational TV series ever developed. Not only will the show be voiced in English and captioned in English and Spanish, but every line, every song, every story will also be signed. This program has everything you've come to expect in a high quality children's educational television show: Interesting stories with fun, colorful characters; Creative original music; Language development; and instruction on the importance of developing positive life values such as honesty, integrity, and responsibility. But it also includes another dimension not found in most educational television. Dr. Wonder's Workshop also address issues of faith. Every program will include a Bible Story and an object lesson to show the children that God is just as relevant today as He ever was! The show will never be "preachy", but in tender loving ways Dr Wonder and his friends will unapologetically show the children that God knows them, He loves them, and they are precious to Him. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, and has educating and informing children as a significant purpose.
