Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Edgemont" has the goal to entertain, inform and educate viewers between the ages of 13 and 16 about issues that arise in school and at home. Storylines focus on the social and emotional challenges that every secondary school student faces, from forming and maintaining friendships and romantic attachments, to ethical and moral choices and family relationships. The programs illustrate the possible consequences of choices that these viewers may face, and these outcomes provide "life lessons" that are shown plainly to the teen audience. "Edgemont" also touches on significant societal issues and can complement classroom discussions on these topics. These issues range from considerations of diversity, racism and sexual identity, to divorce, teen pregnancy, bullying and alcohol and substance abuse. "Edgemont" further benefits its viewers by opening dialogue with peers and potentially also parents and educators regarding the topics portrayed in the series. "Edgemont" aired as a core E/I programming exclusively on WCCB's MeTV affiliated sub-channel.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Kids Cooking for Kids" shares the same goals as its companion show "Cookin' with Cutty" with a special emphasis on children's creative skills as teens will learn how to prepare healthy and nutritious recipes. The series also teaches how a healthy lifestyle includes physical exercise, safety and hygiene. The series will air exclusively as a core E/I program on the sub-channel.
