Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During the second quarter, WWHO addressed the educational and informational needs of children through a variety of programming, outreach activities and sponsorship of local children's events. WWHO sponsored a walking team at the March of Dimes "March for Babies" event, bringing awareness to the organization's need for research dollars to support babies in our community. WWHO also partnered with the City of Columbus' Mayor Michael Coleman for an interfaith event: Praying for the Youth of Our City, bringing families together to discuss ways to change our community for our young people. WWHO furthered its commitment to children by sponsoring a number of family friendly activities, including Dive-in Movies at Zoombezi Bay, and the Asian Festival. We inspired children to get out and exercise with their family and friends by handing out Frisbees and other kid friendly trinkets. WWHO also sponsored Sundays at Scioto, a family friendly event designed to get the community interested in music and art by bringing expositions into a local park. WWHO also airs a series of PSA announcements designed to teach children about the world around them, including respecting the environment, the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of family values and social interaction.
