Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During the fourth quarter, WACH coordinates with SC DSS, Waiting Child WACH which is produced by our news department and features a child in need who is waiting to be adopted by a family. Teens to WACH is also produce by our news department, we chose a teen every month that is drug free, academically gifted and have worked hard to ensure they have a bright future. Winners are announced during the evening news. WACH award a scholarship to one of the twelve teens at the end of the year. School Spirit Squad involves local high schools around the midlands collecting non-perishable items for Harvest Hope, a local food bank. The school with the highest poundage is rewarded with the "Spirit Squad Trophy". Then the poundage from the schools is given at WACH's annual Share Your Holiday Food Drive which we have collected over a million pound of food. Weather School is a program where the WACH FOX weather team goes to local elementary and middle schools to read and educate the students in meteorologist. WACH also provides tours for summer day camps, boy scouts, cub scouts, church youth groups to educate them on broadcasting. WACH had interns for fourth quarter that have helped our News department. WACH's Right Stuff Player of the Week is part of our high school football sports, where we featured one student who excels on and off the field to be the Right Stuff Player of the week.
