| Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies that the station fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to all programs specifically designed for children ages twelve and under. For this reporting period, licensee did not air applicable children's programming that would fall under this category. The station terminated analog operations on June 12, 2009. Responses in this form to questions regarding the analog signal thus refer to the station's primary digital signal only after that date. E/I programming on KTVI 2.1 "Coolest Places On Earth" December 14, 2013 @ 11am, was pre-empted for a KTVI Special Report on severe weather in the viewing area. KTVI was not able to re-schedule the program due to time constraints. Antenna TV network inadvertently omitted the E/I logo from episodes of "Animal Rescue classics" that aired from October 5 through December 15, 2013. The network schedule "make good" telecasts of all of the affected episodes, with the required "E/I" logo, with notice to viewers (using on-screen graphics informing viewers of the special times) and the national program listings services, on December 28, 2013 from 12:00pm - 4:00pm CT and on December 29, 2013 from 9:30am - 4:30pm CT. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | "Word Travels" is a TV series that follows freelance journalist Robin Esrock and national travel columnist Julia Dimon as they battle deadlines, jetlag, culture shock - and each other - to file the best travel stories possible. While travelling to exotic locations and writing about enlightening experiences may sound like an adventurous occupation, the life of a travel writer is not always as glamorous as it seems. Filmed in 36 countries across six continents, each half-hour episode reveals the real story of professional travel journalism - the truth behind the byline, and reinvents the way travel shows are currently presented. |
