Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AQUA KIDS, which aired on WUAB's main digital channel throughout the 2nd quarter 2013, is a half-hour weekly series that provides core programming in the area of biology and specifically the ecosystem related to the ocean, its tributaries and estuaries. Children can learn about the resources of the oceans and how protection of the oceans is necessary to present and future generations. Not only does the show teach biological topics, but it aims to enrich children's lives by making them aware of future generations, the role they play now, and for generations into the future, with the biggest ecosystem on earth-the oceans. Each episode provides information related to a specific topic and gives an educational approach to understand the topic related to the entire ecosystem of the earth. Each episode is topic-specific. AQUA KIDS uses the technique of near peer mentors i.e., children to teach other children. Each episode employs these mentors - the "Aqua Kids" - who ask questions and experience firsthand the experience of the topic. For example, children might feed Manatees to experience the graceful, gentle nature of the animal and learn about their biology or dig through piles of silt dredged from the ocean depths to look for shark teeth to understand how shark continually grow new teeth and lose old rows of teeth.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL ATLAS, which aired on WUAB's main digital channel throughout the 2nd quarter 2013, is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. With an entertaining narrative, the series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as "Animal Appetites" (which explores the various diets of animals along with information about how animals catch and eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc.), "Animal Antics", (a hilarious look at the crazy physical antics and talents of certain species), "Animal Babies" (an intimate look at babies of various species, how they're born, how they are raised and the difficulties and delights of growing up), along with shows which focus solely on certain animals such as elephants, bears, and monkeys. In these shows, a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes the viewer into that animal's world as we see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates and what threatens & supports its survival. ANIMAL ATLAS also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating the viewer about endangered species and wildlife habits, as well as informing viewers how to support wildlife conservation.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"NOW EAT THIS! WITH ROCCO DISPIRITO" is dedicated to helping teens and families eat better, and live healthier lives, without sacrificing flavor. Professional Chef Rocco DiSpirito has two passions in life: family and food. He knows that the pressures of modern life make it harder for families to stay whole and eat wisely. Drawing from his own real life experiences, Rocco is determined to bring families back together over a delicious, healthy meal. Each 30-minute episode is focused on an individual, or a family, and their issues related to food and health. Examples include guests and families struggling with weight issues; trying to feed budding athletes; eating right on a budget; fighting serious health issues like diabetes; simply desiring to live a healthier life. Through the course of each episode, Rocco teaches the guest(s) and viewers important information about food and nutrition, guiding them to make better choices with the food they eat. In the process, they'll learn to cook, Rocco style. Fun and entertaining, and loaded with valuable takeaway information. Each episode ends with a renewed sense of purpose, and a commitment to change for the better. NOW EAT THIS! aired on WUAB's main digital channel throughout the 2nd quarter 2013.
