Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Each episode of Gina D's Kids Club is developed with guidance from Dr. Janice K. Battenburg and Dr. Mary Beth Leidman, two highly respected educators. Gina D's Kids Club is a viable vehicle in the development of the self-image, social, math, and reading skills in young children. The main character, Gina D, is a fun-loving and positive role model who connects with her 2 to 6-year old audience in the same familiarity that children associate with their mothers. Children are not only educated, but are entertained by a cast of whimsical characters which include Simon Wannabe, Mister Pockets, Miss Millee Muffin, Pierre D'Artist, TV Ted and Doggy Brown. Gina D's Kids Club is a place where every kid belongs. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and information needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
