| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Wimzies House takes place in an extraordinary family home that doubles as a small daycare center. The characters of Wimzies House have the powers of childhood: wonder, amazement, laughter, tenderness, sensitivity, creativity, curiosity, and imagination. The educational objectives of Wimzies House support the child's identity development, reinforced through feelings of acceptance of self and of others. Self-esteem is stressed, as is the need for children to react with empathy when faced with their playmates dilemmas. Difficult topics like friendship, generosity, collaboration, solitude, and jealousy are approached from the child's perspective. It's the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside. After spending a half hour in this very special home away from home, no one will leave the world of Wimzie unchanged. The program is 30 minutes in length, and is identified as an informative and educational show, targeted to youth ages 3 through 5, at the beginning of each broadcast and in listings provided to publishers of program guides. |
