| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Mama Mirabelle's Home Movies is designed to promote preschool children's appreciation and understanding of animal life and to foster their recognition of ways in which animal and human experiences are similar and different. Mama Mirabelle's has four educational and informational goals: (1)to foster understanding of animal customs and behaviors, (2) to encourage reflection on similarities and differences between their own lives and the animals'live, (3)to introduce preschool children to an array of different animals in the kingdom and enrich their ability to describe and communicate about them and (4)to motivate preschool children to appreciate the wonder and beauty of animals and animal life. In each episode, children will be immersed in a topic that will be the basis of a compelling story with a problem and resolution. Sample topics include: grooming habits, communication, caring for the young, eating habits, shelter, etc. Children will leave the episode with a simple, clear understanding of how this topic can play out in the animal world. They will be exposed to a variety of situations, customs that will invite them to consider how this topic plays out in their own lives and what it means to them, what does shelter mean to me? How do I deal with cold weather? How do I communicate?, etc. Additionally, children will increase ther knowledge of the animal world, recognizing animals by sight, learning to name them, recognize and imitate how the sound and move and use specific language to describe them. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Toot & Puddle is a story of exploration, both home and afar; it's a story about being yourself and being a good friend. The series key educational and informational goals are to: (1)to encourage exploration and adventure, exciting kids about the world (2) to teach children about other cultures, including geography, music and history and (3) to provide age-appropriate problem solving and behavior for children to model how to be a good friend, how to be yourself and how to celebrate differences. Two friend, Toot and Puddle, live together in Woodcock Pocket. Toot loves to go see the world, Puddle prefers to stay at home. Each episode has one of the friends learning about life--whether it's through Toot's eyes with an international view or through Puddle's experiences back at home with their friends. Children learn about geography, conversational foreign language terms and cultural customs and traditions across the globe. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Are We There Yet? World Adventure is a global adventure series for kids by kids, hosted by very real brother and sister duos Through journal entries, crayon-drawn travel logs, on-location kid chatter, and voice narration the hosts explore a world of playground-inspired adventures as they celebrate familiar childhood themes and experiences in some truly unfamiliar locations across the globe. The series has several educational and informational goals: (1) to teach basic geography and historical context of well-known world sights (2) to develop appreciation for and encourage reflection on similarities and differences between cultures (3) to reinforce the notion that we are all part of one big world, no matter how far away we are and (4) to inspire a sense of world exploration and adventure. The kid hosts bring viewers along on their unscripted adventures that embrace our cultural similarities and delight in our differences. In each episode our hosts visit a man made or natural wonder, have an adventure involving animals, and learn about a new culture by visiting with local kids from different countries around the world. |

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. | Mama Mirabelle's Home Movies is designed to promote preschool children's appreciation and understanding of animal life and to foster their recognition of ways in which animal and human experiences are similar and different. Mama Mirabelle's has four educational and informational goals: (1)to foster understanding of animal customs and behaviors, (2) to encourage reflection on similarities and differences between their own lives and the animals'live, (3)to introduce preschool children to an array of different animals in the kingdom and enrich their ability to describe and communicate about them and (4)to motivate preschool children to appreciate the wonder and beauty of animals and animal life. In each episode, children will be immersed in a topic that will be the basis of a compelling story with a problem and resolution. Sample topics include: grooming habits, communication, caring for the young, eating habits, shelter, etc. Children will leave the episode with a simple, clear understanding of how this topic can play out in the animal world. They will be exposed to a variety of situations, customs that will invite them to consider how this topic plays out in their own lives and what it means to them, what does shelter mean to me? How do I deal with cold weather? How do I communicate?, etc. Additionally, children will increase ther knowledge of the animal world, recognizing animals by sight, learning to name them, recognize and imitate how the sound and move and use specific language to describe them. |

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.

Like all brothers, Sergio and Monica spend their days playing and fighting. But at the difference at other kids each dawn brings a new adventure when their toys become real characters in the fantasy world of the living water. Living water is not only a beautiful place where Sergio and Monica have fun, its also where they have the opportunity to play, create and learn with their friends to help them understand the importance of love, honesty and friendship. Thus, as they confront the daily problems, Sergio and Monica develop character and positive attitude towards life. Each episode of living water presents three musical numbers. This program of 30 minutes is designed to capture the attintion of the children's over 3 years, teaching them social skills and good values.
