Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	As the Commission's files reflect, the station aired 5.5 hours per week of core children's television programming or 71.5 hours per quarter, which is still 32.5 hours more (71.5 vs. 39 hours) than required by Commission Rule 73.671 (Note 2). Furthermore, the station aired 92 hours per week of additional core children's television programming, or 1196 hours for the quarter via its two additional digital sub-channels. This amount represents 1079 hours, on average, above the 117 hours of additional children's television programming per quarter specified by the Commission in this circumstance.
