Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WNYB normally airs 5.50 hours per week of core children's television programming, or 71.5 hours per quarter, on its primary digital channel. The station's quarterly children's programming is 71.5 hours, which is still 22.5 hours more (71.5 vs. 39 hours) than required by Commission Rule 73.671 (Notes 2). Furthermore, the station aired 68.5 hours per week of additional core children's television programming, or 890.5 hours for the quarter via its two additional digital sub-channels.
