Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WISE attempted to timely filed its Form 398 on October 10, 2012 but due to technical difficulties with the FCC's online filing site, the station was unable to file on time. As a result, the station submits its report today, October 11, 2012. After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to use by program suppliers the licensee hereby certifies that it fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to all programs specifically intended for children ages twelve and under. The station has terminated analog operations. Accordingly, questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable. Non-broadcast efforts include: THE MORE YOU KNOW WEBSITE, which is a comprehensive website (TheMoreYouKnow.com) compliments the on-air public service announcements, while providing in-depth referral information for viewers. Content includes: video of all current public service announcements, a general campaign overview, press releases, kids pages and referral information by topic to partnering agencies referenced in the PSAs. The site includes a comprehensive list of the campaign's accolades, including Emmy and Peabody awards. In addition, a behind the scenes story with clips from talent interviews can be viewed.
