Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Supported by a team of Georgia Aquarium biologists, veterinarians, and other experts, Jeff Corwin travels the world to explore the Earth's least understood resource, our oceans and waterways and the animals which call them home. He swims with manta rays, pointing out that their body form was the inspiration for the design of the Stealth jet. While in the water with whale sharks, he takes samples of their blood to better understand their biology. As Jeff continues his journey through each episode, the viewer is able to connect with these animals and learn how important they are to all life on the planet, as well as how sea life connects to life on the rest of the globe. Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	WUTB continued its commitment to serve the educational and informational needs of children throughout the 3rd quarter. Broadcast efforts included airing public service announcements for national organizations including the US Forest Service, Department of Education, Dept of Health and Human Services, Foundation for a Better Life, Dept of Transportation and addressed such issues as outdoor and nature education, literacy, bullying prevention, values education, traffic and pedestrian safety. The station also aired PSAs for local organizations including the Baltimore Area Council Boy Scouts of America and produced PSAs with news talents addressing pedestrian safety, summer reading, weather safety, fire prevention and safety, swimming safety, swimming lessons and hands-only CPR training. During 3rd quarter, the station partnered with local organizations to produce PSAs address the Summer Reading Program and Outdoor Play. In September, the station joined with the Maryland Food Bank and Shoppers Food to create awareness about childhood hunger in Maryland by producing a food drive to collect non-perishable foods for families in need.
