Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Riley and Todd, siblings who were raised in an orphanage after the death of their parents, long to be adopted. They find a comic book advertisement for "replacement" parents for a $1.98 fee and decide to send the money. They acquire an unorthodox pair of Replacement Parents, Dick Darling, a former daredevil stuntman, and Agent K., a British super-spy. Neither seems to know much about parenting, although their intentions are good. Their attempts to forge a family and adjust to a new school are both touching and comedic. Stories revolve around issues such as cooperating with household/family rules, taking responsibility, fairness, building self-esteem and trust.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Raven is a teenager who is clairvoyant. Because of her special gift, Raven, a normally happy and resourceful girl, sometimes wonders if she is a freak. She has loving and supportive parents who both work outside of the home, which often makes her responsible for her younger brother after school causing the issue of typical sibling rivalry to arise. Raven also has two very close friends Chelsea and Eddie. Everyone close to Raven knows about her clairvoyant abilities which sometimes get her in trouble. The episodes focus on how Raven deals with growing up, being clairvoyant and deals with issues such as sibling rivalry, loyalty, self-acceptance, dealing with authority both from parents and at school, honesty, jealousy, and the consequences of lying and/or cheating.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Thirteen-year-old Miley Stewart, recently moved from Tennessee to Malibu, CA, leads a double life. By day she attends public high school, along with her older brother Jackson, but by night she is emerging pop star "Hannah Montana". Except for her family, only her two best friends, Oliver and Lilly, and her bodyguard know about Miley's career as a singer, and she strives to maintain privacy, fearing that her new classmates would treat her very differently if they knew of her stage identity. Miley has ordinary teenage insecurities, but remains true to herself, despite the allure of concert life, the limos, parties, and glamorous clothes. Stories examine social issues such as peer pressure, integrity, family rules, jealousy, friendship and loyalty, and issues related to bereavement.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	In addition to our regular childrens programming, during the 3rd quarter of 2011, WGGB continues to air various PSA's aimed at young people. Here are just an example of a few of those: PSA's pertaining to Orthodontic safety during sports, youth exercise, family values, Big Brother-Big Sister programs, internet awareness & safety, asthma, and a humane society pet shelter PSA. In addition we carried the Annual Jerry Lewis Telethon to raise money to help children with neuro-muscular diseases. We also continue to do programs locally that try and combat the bullying problem in western Massachusetts.

Program Title	EVERYDAY HEALTH
Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturdays 11-11:30 AM EST
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	In each program our hosts scan the country finding those who "pay it forward" to promote health and wellness. Viewers will meet "agents of change" from all corners of the country, selfless Americans with good will and new ideas to tackle a wide variety of health issues. Through philanthropy and a little hard work, the "agents of change" demonstrate how one person can really make a difference.
