Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The half-hour weekly series, Sea Rescue, features the rescue, rehabilitation and - in many instances - release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there's a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This animated series is about an anthropomorphic tiger shark named Kenny who decides to move out of the ocean. He was tired of the ocean life and went to live on the surface where he is able to walk on his tailfins and able to breathe air like humans. He can't control himself when he hears or sees a seal. Kenny lives with an 11-year-old girl named Kat (who is the only human that can talk to Kenny) and her family (who can also talk to Kenny - rarely). Kenny lives in a house by himself. He loves eating chum, seal pops, seals and sushi.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	STATION TOURS of KGTV are offered to children of all ages - from Scout groups eager to learn about the television business to high school and college students interested in Broadcasting and Journalism careers. Kids get an extensive tour of the station, have an opportunity to get in front of the camera and even watch a live newscast. 10LEADERSHIP AWARDS are presented to community leaders who have founded non-profit organizations or have been instrumental in organizing projects and fundraisers in San Diego. During the Second Quarter of 2014, one of our recipients was a husband and wife team who founded the non-profit organization called A Bridge for Kids. This organization is dedicated to helping underserved, first generation high school students pay for college and education related fees (sporting equipment, college application fees, etc.) Another recipient volunteers with Racers Against Drugs, an organization that influences youth to get involved in sports and racing instead of drugs. After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies as follows: (1) the only programs specifically designed for children twelve and under that the station broadcast this quarter are disclosed in this report and (2) the licensee fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to these programs. KGTV has terminated analog operations. Therefore questions 7(b) and 7 (c) no longer are applicable.
