Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	On The Spot is a question and answer show challenging viewers to recall middle and high school knowledge about history, science, math, English, second languages, health, geography, art, music, and technology, and then teaches them the answer. The show uses an entertaining on-the-street format to test how well young people know the information contained in their own national curriculum. The format allows a wide range of topics and allows topics to be blended. The program also succeeds in modeling all ages, ethnicities and genders as successful, knowledgeable individuals. Although there are right and wrong answers, there are right answers from people that every audience member can identify with so that they see a representative from their own group succeeding. In turn, it also allows viewers to learn respect for those outside their own group.

Question	Response
Does the Licensee publicize the existence and location of the station's Children's Television Programming Reports (FCC 398) as required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii)?	Yes
Name of children's programming liaison	Warren Holybee
Address	2500 Marin St.
City	San Francisco
State	CA
Zip	94124
Telephone Number	415-821-2020
Email Address	wholybee@kofytv.com
Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	This report is being re-submitted on 7/21/2014, to amend the 4Q2011 Report (timely filed on 1/09/2012). A time-stamped copy of the original submission is available upon request. After due review of internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers, the licensee hereby certifies that it fully complied with the FCC's commercial limits, as specified at 47 C.F.R. Section 73.670, with respect to all programs specifically intended for children ages twelve and under. The station did not broadcast an analog signal during this quarter. The licensee's response to question 7(b) therefore assumes that the Station's current main program stream serves as equivalent to the Station's former analog channel.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Green Screen Adventures sparks enthusiasm for writing through age-appropriate sketch comedy, original songs, puppetry, and story theatre. The stories are based on the writing of elementary school students, ages 7-13. Children get the message that their words have power, that their voices are being heard. Our diverse Green Screen company of performers and writers reinforce critical writing skills and share positive social messages. Our educational mission emphasizes the four "C"s as well as the three "R"s. - Curiosity, Confidence, Citizenship, Compassion.
