Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"The Outdoorsman" gives children the chance to see parts of the world that are rarely explored. The educational benefits are obvious: a visit to the frozen land of Russia, the pristine waters of South America, and arid terrain of Africa. Each program is replete with information on domestic and international habitat, the culture of the people, and the respect for the issues of conservation. The host is more than an avid sportsman but a champion for environmental issues and the preservation and protection of land and the animals that inhabit it.
