Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Animal Atlas" is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. With an entertaining narrative, the series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as "Animal Appetites" (which explores the various diets of animals along with information about how animals catch and eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc), "Animal Antics", (a hilarious look at the crazy physical antics and talents of certain species), "Animal Babies" (an intimate look at babies of various species, how they are born, how they are raised and the difficulties and delights of growing up), along with shows which focus solely on certain animals. In these shows a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes the viewer into that animal's world as we see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates, and what threatens and supports its survival. "Animal Atlas" also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating the viewer about endangered species and wildlife habitats, as well as informing viewers how to support wildlife conservation.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	On an episode by episode basis, Oscar, in the role of his alter-ego, Nanoboy, harnesses and uses the power of science and technology to save his world from the meanest and ugliest villains around. In doing so, he teaches target viewers the elements of science and enticingly demonstrates how knowledge can be used to solve difficult problems and meet important aims. This learning becomes all the more impactful because young viewers can readily relate to Oscar. He's bright and fun-loving, and like all kids, he's not perfect. Oscar is small for his age, athletically challenged, and perhaps even a bit nerdy. But when Oscar and his friends are faced with peril, Oscar magically transforms from "every-kid" into amazing Nanoboy. Through observation, viewers gain the motivation to use learning, knowledge, and action to transform themselves to meet challenges in their own lives.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Please note that KFVS has chosen to consolidate core E/I programming for our multicast channels by airing 6 hours per week of E/I programming on 12.2 (The Heartland's CW), satisfying the 3 hour requirement for 12.3 (Weather Channel). MVPD carriage for 12.2 is higher than MVPD carriage for 12.3. Because station KFVS ceased analog operations and converted to digital-only operations prior to the start of the reporting period, Questions 7(b) and 7(c) are no longer applicable. Due to breaking news (severe weather warnings and emergency information) on 4/18 On The Spot and Wild About Animals did not air. The programs were aired in their entirety on Saturday 4/20 from 12-1PM. Due to breaking news (severe weather warnings and emergency information) on 5/30, the last nine minutes of Wild About Animals did not air.

Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturdays 7-7:30AM and 7:30-8AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	26
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	6 years to 11 years
