Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Will & Dewitt uses fantasy, fun, music and rhyme to provide young viewers with an enticing model for learning, growing and being. Along with their human and animal friends, Will and Dewitt face challenges, such as the first day of school, or tying their shoes for the first time. They often overcome these challenges by means of their own brand of ingenuity and perseverance, mixed with an ample dose of joy and humor. The boy and his frog, just like real little kids, commonly make mistakes and errors of judgment which at the time may seem monumental, but serves as motivators of growth. Along with this essential skill-based and pro-social education, the series also gives viewers an opportunity to learn primary knowledge based skills. Viewers are encouraged and taught a variety of useful skills, including executing basic hygiene activities; using writing instruments; playground safety behaviors, and more. The series is intended to help viewers gain appropriate life skills and behaviors and to aid them to take a meaningful role in their environment. (This program aired on the main digital stream)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	In this animated action-adventure series four exceptional Air Force Academy cadets and a wrongly court-martialed Stargate veteran must travel through the gated wormholes from one planet to the next in order to protect a mysterious alien creature from the sinister clutches of a new extraterrestrial enemy. Together they must learn to adapt to new cultures - and each other - while trying to find a safe haven for the alien and clear their names so they can return home. In each episode, the Stargate Explorers enter another new world. The explorers will encounter life forms and cultures very different from their own, and they will face problems that require cooperation as a team. The program explores issues, attitudes, and behaviors important to learning how to get along with others from different races, cultures, and species or from their own team of trainees. The young explorers serve as models for the young audience to examine fundamental issues of how to get along with others who may be very different from oneself, and the different abilities and strengths to build character and be a good person. Program Title	Stargate Infinity
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Sundays 10:00am (7/3-9/25/11)
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	9 years to 11 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	In this animated action-adventure series four exceptional Air Force Academy cadets and a wrongly court-martialed Stargate veteran must travel through the gated wormholes from one planet to the next in order to protect a mysterious alien creature from the sinister clutches of a new extraterrestrial enemy. Together they must learn to adapt to new cultures - and each other - while trying to find a safe haven for the alien and clear their names so they can return home. In each episode, the Stargate Explorers enter another new world. The explorers will encounter life forms and cultures very different from their own, and they will face problems that require cooperation as a team. The program explores issues, attitudes, and behaviors important to learning how to get along with others from different races, cultures, and species or from their own team of trainees. The young explorers serve as models for the young audience to examine fundamental issues of how to get along with others who may be very different from oneself, and the different abilities and strengths to build character and be a good person. Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	AWESOME ADVENTURES is designed to educate, inform and entertain children about the world around them. A host, as well as two different teens, will travel each week to destinations around the world that can be both exotic and remote. Each journey is a lesson in the beauty of nature, its creatures, and the people who inhabit the land. The shows are not designed to be preachy or overly pedantic, but rather, the goal is to make the learning fun. (This program will air on the secondary digital stream, MyTV Dayton, channel 30.2)
