Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	The Traveling Trio is an adventure-filled educational series presented by three siblings who traverse the globe while exploring, learning, and teaching viewers about our amazing world and all it has to offer. In each episode, Olivia, Ingram and Everett begin with a geography lesson that includes the locatin of the destination, the flag, the language, and the bordering countries. Basic historical facts are presented in a clear, easy-to-understand manner as the hosts move from location to location. In every episode, the hosts interact with each other as well as merchants and children from the destination country. Olivia, Ingram, and Everett also conduct interviews with children and adults who are working for positive social change in their community (whenever possible), especially in regard to education and child welfare. In concluding the episodes, the hosts, with the help of some of their new friends, present a simple language lesson that teaches common phrases from the destination. This rudimentary tutorial is intended to spark an interest in foreign language by presenting it as an obtainable skill. This program airs on the digital 8-3 only.
