Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL ATLAS is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. The series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as animal diets (the diverse diets of animals along with information about how animals catch & eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc.), animal locomotion (different forms of locomotion and how/why animals move the way that they do), and animal babies (an intimate look at babies of various species - how they are born, how they are raised & the difficulties and delights of growing up) along with shows which focus solely on certain animals such as elephants, birds, and fish. In these shows, a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes viewers into that animal's world to see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates, and what threatens and supports its survival. The series introduces viewers to every kind of animal imaginable including apes, giant lizards, sharks, tigers and well as other animals from the Americas, Africa, Asia and Antarctica. ANIMAL ATLAS also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating viewers about endangered species and wildlife habitats as well as informing viewers as to how to support wildlife conservation. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. ANIMAL ATLAS - I aired on WTOL's secondary digital channel throughout the 1st quarter 2011. NOTE: On Sunday, 2/6/11, one of the four segments of the program aired out of sequence due to a technical problem. While the episode ran on 2/6 in its entirety on WTOL-DT2, the station also re-aired the episode on 2/20/11 at 9:30AM on its secondary channel.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	SAFARI TRACKS is an exciting and entertaining series of half-hour programs focused entirely on African wildlife. Every show explores the magnificent and mysterious world of Africa's animals in their natural habitat. Led by "Ushaka" - the show's young South African host - SAFARI TRACKS takes the viewer from the brush lands of the savannah to the great Okavango, from the greatest game reserves to the most remote beaches of Madagascar. Each episode focuses primarily on one subject (such as "Big Cats," "Elephants and Their Young," "Leapers and Jumpers - Those Fabulous Flying Hoofed Animals") or on an aspect of wildlife behavior (such as "Life at the Local Waterhole," "Family Behavior - or rather - Misbehavior," or "Africa After Dark"). Viewers see everything from rare African birds to "creepy crawlers" to animal babies interacting with their mother and siblings. Filmed entirely in exotic African locations, SAFARI TRACKS educates young viewers about wildlife conservation and shows them how to better support efforts to protect endangered species. SAFARI TRACKS - I aired on WTOL's secondary digital channel throughout the 1st quarter 2011.

SAFARI TRACKS is an exciting and entertaining series of half-hour programs focused entirely on African wildlife. Every show explores the magnificent and mysterious world of Africa's animals in their natural habitat. Led by "Ushaka" - the show's young South African host - SAFARI TRACKS takes the viewer from the brush lands of the savannah to the great Okavango, from the greatest game reserves to the most remote beaches of Madagascar. Each episode focuses primarily on one subject (such as "Big Cats," "Elephants and Their Young," "Leapers and Jumpers - Those Fabulous Flying Hoofed Animals") or on an aspect of wildlife behavior (such as "Life at the Local Waterhole," "Family Behavior - or rather - Misbehavior," or "Africa After Dark"). Viewers see everything from rare African birds to "creepy crawlers" to animal babies interacting with their mother and siblings. Filmed entirely in exotic African locations, SAFARI TRACKS educates young viewers about wildlife conservation and shows them how to better support efforts to protect endangered species. SAFARI TRACKS - II aired on WTOL's secondary digital channel throughout the 1st quarter 2011.

Program Title	BUSYTOWN MYSTERIES - I (main digital channel 11.1)
Origination	Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday, 7:00-7:30AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	3 years to 7 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Inspired by the beloved works of best-selling children's author Richard Scarry, BUSYTOWN MYSTERIES brings the popular adventures of Busytown to preschoolers with an educational, problem-solving twist. Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. BUSYTOWN MYSTERIES - I will air on WTOL'S main digital channel in the 2nd quarter 2011.

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Saturday, 11:00-11:30AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	9 years to 11 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. Program Title	ANIMAL ATLAS - I (digital channel 11.2 on WTOL-DT2 "24/7 News and Weather Channel")
Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	Sunday, 10:00-10:30AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL ATLAS is an entertaining and educational half-hour program that explores the world of animal wildlife, promoting a better understanding of how various animal species live and what they need to survive. The series combines focused examinations of certain topics such as animal diets (the diverse diets of animals along with information about how animals catch & eat their food, how diets determine their lifestyle, etc.), animal locomotion (different forms of locomotion and how/why animals move the way that they do), and animal babies (an intimate look at babies of various species - how they are born, how they are raised & the difficulties and delights of growing up) along with shows which focus solely on certain animals such as elephants, birds, and fish. In these shows, a thorough and entertaining exploration of the specific animal takes viewers into that animal's world to see where it lives, how it eats, how it plays, how the family unit operates, and what threatens and supports its survival. The series introduces viewers to every kind of animal imaginable including apes, giant lizards, sharks, tigers and well as other animals from the Americas, Africa, Asia and Antarctica. ANIMAL ATLAS also promotes responsibility toward wildlife issues by educating viewers about endangered species and wildlife habitats as well as informing viewers as to how to support wildlife conservation. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules. ANIMAL ATLAS - I will air on WTOL's secondary digital channel in the 2nd quarter 2011.
