Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This educational program is targeted to pre-schoolers, featuring five high-spirited friends Uniqua, Pablo, Tyrone, Tasha and Austin who inspire children to engage in creative collaborative play through musical-adventures. Each episode entices young children to learn through music and dance and develop "cognitive learning." The unique character's personalities also add to this program's appeal, children will easily relate. Uniqua is the curious and confident one, and sometimes is perceived as the tomboy. Pablo the penguin is most often the leader of the pack but has panic attacks when he encounters obstacles. Tyrone the moose is the laid back and cool and known for his ironic comments. Tasha the hippo is the serious one, likes to get her own way and isn't easy to fool. Austin is the timid kangaroo who starts to come out to his shell with help of his friends. Each adventure begins in the backyard through the group's imagination it is transformed into a completely different world in which they enjoy many sorts of stories and adventures. Viewers are stimulated to early-learning through the different music genre such as big band, reggae, western, polka, Motown and disco.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	On Saturday, December 14, 2013 the entire children's block was preempted. The preemption was due to the broadcast of the TeletonUSA, which is a telethon to raise money for an organization that helps children with cancer, disabilities and autism. This year's telethon exceeded its goal and raised more than $15.3 million during the 29-hour broadcast.
