Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Trollz is a program that centers on five troll girls on the cusp of adolescence and their new powers. As they struggle to master their new powers, they must also struggle to find out what it means to be a good citizen, a good friend and a good person. In their struggle the girls have help from their teachers and the Ancients, Troll elders. The five girls each have different personalities. As the girls enter adolescence, the evil gremlin, Simon is awakened and plots against the Trollz. The girls must work together to foil Simon's evil plans. They make mistakes but together they correct and learn from their mistakes. The characters also learn how to accept responsibility, how to deal with jealousy, what it means to be a good friend, to respect each other's differences, to know when to ask for help, the value of cooperation and the importance of being true to oneself. This program airs on digital channel 1.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Four teens from very different backgrounds all taking riding lessons at a very unusual riding stable where the animals all speak to each other. The teens deal with accepting responsibility, developing self-confidence, self-esteem and caring for their mounts. They also are confronted with problems that test their honesty, integrity and sometimes even their friendship. As they work to find solutions, the animals make comments on what the teens should or should not do or how they are handling the particular situation, giving the viewer a new insight to dealing with the issue. Through the four characters and the dialogue of the animals the viewers are shown clear prosocial educational messages. This program airs on digital channel 1.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Weather Eye: A Station non-broadcast activity; the KGAN Forecast Center's Internet WeatherEye site contains station-produced weather lessons for students in grades 6-12. Community Calendar: Station produced public service announcements incorporate information highlighting school and community events such as school plays, concerts, science station and children's museum exhibits and demonstrations, public library and area museum exhibits and programs, and cultural and educational happenings in the coverage area. Aired throughout each week during the quarter. Weather Rookie: Every Wednesday, KGAN presents the "Weather Rookie" on the CBS-2 Morning News. Selected by each school, the student is between 2nd and 6th grade. The student is shown general weather information, practices "trial" runs, then presents weather on-air between 6:30 and 7:00 AM. Later that day, weatherman Justin Roberts visits the Weather Rookie's school with a more in-depth weather lesson for the entire class.
