Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Pearlie is an animated comedy series based on the children's book series, Pearlle the Park Fairy by Wendy Harmer. Pearlle is an optimistic, light hearted fairy who sees the good in everybody, but often gets into situations because her desire to help is larger than her capacity to deliver. Aimed for an audience within the 4 to 8 year old range, episodes focus on the importance of following the rules, using good judgment and learning how to avoid getting into trouble. Since Pearlle was appointed by Fairy Head Quarters to keep Jubilee Park in sparkling order, she has constant challenges with her basic goal of keeping everyone happy and making sure the park functions smoothly. Since Pearlle was appointed by Fairy Head Quarters to keep Jubilee Park in sparkling order, she has constant challenges with her basic goal of keeping everyone happy and making sure the park functions smoothly. Pearlle's nemesis and cousin, Saphira, often takes advantage of Pearlle's good nature which requires that Pearlle must also frequently outwit the park bully.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Set in medieval times, Jane and the Dragon is an animated show based on Martin Baynton's bestselling book about a middle-class medieval girl named Jane. Jane is raised in the Royal Court as a Knight-in-Training after she demonstrates her courage by leaving the castle to conquer the local dragon. The giant green Dragon, whose sense of humor exceeds his ferocity, instead becomes Jane's best friend and a part of the castle community. In each episode, Jane encounters a challenge that tests her problem-solving skills and requires her to demonstrate her strength of character as a Knight of the King's Guard. Sometimes Jane learns a moral lesson, and other times she uses her analytical ability to illustrate how a problem can be made less complicated and easily solved.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Zula's comprehensive program addresses the national call for science literacy education among the very audience for whom research demonstrates that early intervention is most effective. By reaching pre-kindergarten and early elementary students, Zula can provide a critical foundation in understanding science concepts and content. The television program provides science education and character-building lessons in an entertaining format thru characters that travel in space. The Zula Patrol's developers have designed an integrated approach, teaching science through engaging stories with humor, character-building social lessons, and supporting materials. The entire Zula package serves many aspects of learning, promotes literacy, and provides a diverse approach to learning styles.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Based on the book An Octopus Followed Me Home, by Dan Yaccarino, Willa's Wild Life is an animated series centered on a six year old girl and her menagerie of animals. Willa lives at home with her father and pets, an elephant, a giraffe, a pair of performing seals, a bear, penguins, and lots of rabbits. In each episode, Willa faces a challenge at home, in school or in her neighborhood. With her animals and best friend Dooley as key elements of her team, Willa works on solutions to overcome her challenge. Together they find ways to maintain healthy friendships, experience success, develop competence, and become altruistic. With help from her animal friends, Willa figures out how to earn the things she wants by helping others. She learns to appreciate the friends that she has rather than trying to change to fit in with the "cool" group. She realizes that asking questions is better than jumping to conclusions. Whether at school, home or in the neighborhood, Willa finds a way to analyze her situation and learn from experience.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Shelldon is an animated series about a school aged yoka shell mollusk named Shelldon. He lives with his adoptive family, the Clams, in Shell Land, an undersea community populated by allsorts of sea species. Shelldon and his best friends, Connie, a cowrie shell mollusk, and Herman, a hermit crab, face a specific challenge in every episode. The problem may be managing a bully, improving their grades, learning how to be altruistic, or protecting their environment from natural and man-made disasters. In most cases, they rely on Dr. Shell, the most venerated intellectual and elder in Shell Land who teaches them and gives them opportunities to harness their potential and solve the problem. Each episode provides a direct social-emotional lesson and many episodes provide informational content relating to the sea life habitat of Shell Land and environmental conservation.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Jacob Two Two is an animated show about a little boy with a big heart who lives with his parents and four older siblings and has a habit of repeating himself just so he can be heard. Ignored by his siblings, but still looking up to them, Jacob tries to partake in their activities. Still, there are those who notice him when he inadvertently lands himself in adventures that involve mysterious neighbors, international spies, and villains that come in all shapes and sizes. Often accompanied by his closest pals, Buford and Renee, Jacob Two Two finds innovative ways to get himself and others out of hot water as he tumbles through a series of exciting adventures with honesty, integrity and a whole lot of determination. Based on Mordecai Richler's books, the show embeds social emotional messages in which Jacob learns to carve a niche for himself as he learns to deal with his reality in the surreal world of adults.
