Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Developed and produced for 13-16 year olds, the world's cultures and geographical wonders come alive as the youngest Explorers Club history, Richard Wiese, takes viewers on a globetrotting adventure. While developed for 13-16 year olds, Born to Explore is engaging for the whole family. In this weekly half-hour series, Richard uncovers amazing facts of nature and man made treasures. In Born to Explore, Richard Wiese takes the role of the ultimate Social Studies teacher to a new level, bringing the viewing audience to the places and people of our world who form our cultures. Whether he climbs Mount Kilimanjaro, explores why people live at the base of an active volcano, or travels down the Nile River, viewers will travel the world without leaving their homes. The Saturday, December 15, 2012 episode was interrupted for an ABC Network Special Report from 8:13:30AM-8:26:25AM MT. "Born to Explore" is broadcast on the stations primary digital channel only.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Young, enthusiastic and passionate about food, Claire Thomas is the 22 year old host who opens viewers' eye to how everyday life can inspire culinary creations in Food for Thought. Each weekly half-hour, produced for ages 13-16, informs and educates teens about the power of food as a tool for exploring new places, meeting new people and learning about different cultures. Claire serves as a role model for 13-16 year old viewers by showing her passion for her family, life, and healthy living by sharing stories in the kitchen. Creative inspiration can come from any place at any time - sometime from family, sometimes from friends, or even from bloggers needing her help. No matter how exotic or local the location, she's always in search of new tastes and places to explore. Based on her unique perspective gathered throughout each episode, Claire will teach the audience how to prepare the "inspired" dish while promoting a healthy attitude towards food and life. "Food for Thought with Claire Thomas" is broadcast on the stations primary digital channel only.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Dog & Cat Training with Joel Silverman" is a weekly half-hour educational/informational home pet training show with an entertaining Hollywood flair that is appropriate for family viewing and children ages 13-16 in particular. Through Joel's revealing interviews with fellow Hollywood animal trainers and his "in-the-home" training sessions with people and their pets, this show presents dog and cat owners as well a wide array of opportunities to learn to train their pets. Episode featured segments: The K9s of Orange County - During this segment, Joel will go to the homes of his clients. By helping real people with their various training issues, viewers will gain valuable training tips to help them solve similar problems they might be having with their own dog. Working Dogs - This segment will introduce the viewers to "prey drive," a dog's natural instinct to focus on and pursue prey. Viewers will learn how this inherent behavior can be used in a positive way to train their own pets to exhibit the agility, obedience and repeatable behavior found in working animals such as police dogs, drug dogs, service animals and others. Animal Actors - In this segment the animals are the stars. Joel takes viewers behind the scenes to meet actual Hollywood animal trainers and their famous animal actor as they demonstrate training techniques that are used for work on TV and the big screen. Cat Training - There are a number of people who believe that cats simply cannot be trained. This segment will offer valuable information on the training of cats. The viewers will learn to teach their cat an array of behaviors like sit, stay, and come. All of the cat training sessions will be shot from the Nevada Humane Society in their catteries with cats with no training that Joel has selected as pupils. "Dog & Cat Training with Joel Silverman" is broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Jack Hanna's Into the Wild" Shot from a number of photographic perspectives, the viewer is introduced to the biodiversity of the area, how animals are adapted to the environment, and the changes humans have imposed on the environment as well as the positive impact of local conservation efforts in the region. While Jack Hanna introduces the habitat and wildlife, regional guides are given the "expert" status and the viewer becomes engaged in the natural environment with the same enthusiasm as Jack's family. It is also important to note that in addition to the educational content of the program, Jack brings the affective aspect to wildlife education, engaging the emotional appeal of the wild animals and the conservation message to encourage the audience to take an active interest in preserving wildlife. Combining data-oriented scientific information with concern for the conservation status of wildlife and the environment enforces the educational value and impact of the program. "Jack Hanna's into the Wild" is broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Career Day" is a television program that introduces young adults to career exploration and awareness. Students often do not know what they want to do and are unsure of potential interests they may have that could be a career. "Career Day" provides an avenue to view experts in their respective fields as they discuss their work, the education/training to prepare for the job, and experiences that led them to choose their career. To encourage students to make informed decisions, young adults must be introduced to career awareness, such as the concept that success in most careers requires education and training. Middle school is an ideal age at which to expose students to the challenging world of work. The program's motivational and inspirational message of each guest empowers audiences of all ages to investigate career opportunities, which have been proven to enhance academic performance, facilitate high school completion and encourage post secondary education. Each segment of "Career Day" delivers an educational and informational message that supports current social, intellectual and emotional aspects of children 13 and up. Attributes and advice emphasized by guests instill a grounded balance of priorities, dedication, and perseverance children can apply to their lives. "Career Day" is broadcast on the station's secondary digital channel only.

See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Stations Primary Digital Channel - ABC: A Better Community is a joint ABC Network and affiliate campaign dedicated to building a better community through public service initiatives and community outreach with pro-social messages that inform, serve the public interest and inspire a call to action. A Better Community is designed to utilize the broad reach of the ABC Television Network, the positive influence of talent and the power of on- and off-air programming to inspire individuals to make a difference in their communities through volunteerism and public service. "ABC is focusing A Better Community on volunteerism because the idea of giving back to one's community is of high importance to the Network, our talent and our viewers - it's a call to action we are confident will resonate with viewers of all ages and backgrounds," "Volunteering is something that everyone can do, regardless of personal interests or talents - something that is beneficial not only to those who receive the goodwill of others, but also to the volunteers themselves. It can truly be life-changing for everyone, volunteering is not only important, but fun, easy, and rewarding." The centerpiece of the campaign is a series of PSAs that will air on the Network and affiliates throughout all day parts. The spots feature talent from ABC News, ABC Daytime, and ABC Primetime, who deliver pro-volunteering messages along with the call to action, "get involved and help build A Better Community." Each PSA encourages viewers to log onto ABetterCommunity.com where they will find tips on how to get involved, profiles of various national non-profits that offer volunteer opportunities, special features on Network initiatives, behind-the-scenes looks at the campaign and more.

Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	"Dog & Cat Training with Joel Silverman" is a weekly half-hour educational/informational home pet training show with an entertaining Hollywood flair that is appropriate for family viewing and children ages 13-16 in particular. Through Joel's revealing interviews with fellow Hollywood animal trainers and his "in-the-home" training sessions with people and their pets, this show presents dog and cat owners as well a wide array of opportunities to learn to train their pets. Episode featured segments: The K9s of Orange County - During this segment, Joel will go to the homes of his clients. By helping real people with their various training issues, viewers will gain valuable training tips to help them solve similar problems they might be having with their own dog. Working Dogs - This segment will introduce the viewers to "prey drive," a dog's natural instinct to focus on and pursue prey. Viewers will learn how this inherent behavior can be used in a positive way to train their own pets to exhibit the agility, obedience and repeatable behavior found in working animals such as police dogs, drug dogs, service animals and others. Animal Actors - In this segment the animals are the stars. Joel takes viewers behind the scenes to meet actual Hollywood animal trainers and their famous animal actor as they demonstrate training techniques that are used for work on TV and the big screen. Cat Training - There are a number of people who believe that cats simply cannot be trained. This segment will offer valuable information on the training of cats. The viewers will learn to teach their cat an array of behaviors like sit, stay, and come. All of the cat training sessions will be shot from the Nevada Humane Society in their catteries with cats with no training that Joel has selected as pupils. To be broadcast on the stations secondary digital channel only.
