The series follows a group of six dogs from Racerville who love to compete with one another in races. In each story, one or more of the dogs encounter and solve problems that teach them social-emotional lessons on good sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, playing fair, and friendship. The show also imparts information on the mechanics of racing such as directionality and concepts of distance and time. The social-emotional messages are embedded through the stories using action and humor. The tags at the end of each episode reiterate and establish the educational message learned by the dogs. |

| Describe theeducationalandinformationalobjective ofthe programand how itmeets thedefinition ofCoreProgramming. | Shelldon is an animated series that takes place in Shell Land, a mythical undersea world populated by characters from a wide array of water dwelling species. The main character, Shelldon, is an orphaned yoka shell mollusk adopted by the Clam family and living with them in the family owned Charming Clam Inn. Dr. Shell, an elder and venerated inventor, and Connie, a cowry shell classmate of Shelldon's also live with him at the inn. Shelldon and his buddies Herman, (a Hermit crab) and Connie always work together and solve problems that they face in school or in the community. A recurring problem is to staunch the plans of the local millionaire, Cecil Cracken, whose greed puts making money over protecting the environment. Dr. She is typically the children's key provider of knowledge and other resources. In each episode, the children learn a significant social emotional lesson and also share information relating to their ocean habitat and environmental protection. |

The series follows a group of six dogs from Racerville who love to compete with one another in races. In each story, one or more of the dogs encounter and solve problems that teach them social-emotional lessons on good sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, playing fair, and friendship. The show also imparts information of the mechanics of racing such as directionality and concepts of distance and time. The social-emotional messages are embedded through the stories using action and humor. The tags at the end of each episode reiterate and establish the educational message learned by the dogs. |

The series follows a group of six dogs from Racerville who love to compete with one another in races. In each story, one or more of the dogs encounter and solve problems that teach them social-emotional lessons on good sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, playing fair, and friendship. The show also imparts information on the mechanics of racing such as directionality and concepts of distance and time. The social-emotional messages are embedded through the stories using action and humor. The tags at the end of each episode reiterate and establish the educational message learned by the dogs. |

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Willa is an animated series centered on a six year old girl, and her menagerie of animals. Willa lives at home with her father and pets; an elephant, a giraffe, a pair of performing seals, a bear, penguins, and lots of rabbits. In each episode, Willa faces a challenge at home, in school or in her neighborhood. With her animals and best friend Dooley as key elements of her team, Willa works on solutions to overcome her challenge. Together they find ways to maintain healthy friendships, experience success, develop competence and become altruistic. With help from her animal friends, Willa figures out how to earn the things she wants to help others. She learns to appreciate the friends that she has rather than trying to change to fit in with the cool group. She realized that asking questions is better than jumping to conclusions. Whether at school, home or in the neighborhood, Willa finds a way to analyze her situation and learn from experience.

The main character, Shelldon, is an orphaned yoka shell mollusk adopted by the Clam family and living with them in the family owned Charming Clam Inn. Dr. Shell, an elder and venerated inventor, and Connie, a cowry shell classmate of Shelldon's also live with him at the inn. Shelldon and his buddies Herman, (a Hermit crab) and Connie always work together and solve problems that they face in school or in the community. A recurring problem is to staunch the plans of the local millionaire, Cecil Cracken, whose greed puts making money over protecting the environment. Dr. Shell is typically the children's key provider of knowledge and other resources. In each episode, the children learn a significant social emotional lesson and also share information relating to their ocean habitat and environmental protection. |

The series follows a group of six dogs from Racerville who love to compete with one another in races. In each story, one or more of the dogs encounter and solve problems that teach them social-emotional lessons on good sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, playing fair, and friendship. The show also imparts information on the mechanics of racing such as directionality and concepts of distance and time. The social-emotional messages are embedded through the stories using action and humor. The tags at the end of each episode reiterate and establish the educational message learned by the dogs. |

Shelldon is an animated series that takes place in Shell Land, a mythical undersea world populated by Describe the characters from a wide array of water dwelling species. The main character, Shelldon, is an orphaned yoka shell mollusk adopted by the Clam family and living with them in the family owned Charming Clam Inn. Dr. informational Shell, an elder and venerated inventor, and Connie, a cowry shell classmate of Shelldon's also live with him at the inn. Shelldon and his buddies Herman, (a Hermit crab) and Connie always work together and solve problems that they face in school or in the community. A recurring problem is to staunch the plans of the local millionaire, Cecil Cracken, whose greed puts making money over protecting the environment. Dr. Shell is typically the children's key provider of knowledge and other resources. In each episode, the children learn a significant social emotional lesson and also share information relating to their ocean habitat and environmental protection.

Child Audience from Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Zula's comprehensive program addresses the national call for science literacy education among the very audience for whom research demonstrates that early intervention is most effective. By reaching prekindergarten and early elementary students, Zula can provide a critical foundation in understanding science concepts and content. The television program provides science education and character building lessons in an entertaining format thru characters that travel in space. The Zula Patrol's developers have designed an integrated approach, teaching science through engaging stories with humor, character building social lessons, and supporting materials. The entire Zula package serves many aspects of learning, promotes literacy, and provides a diverse approach to learning styles.
