Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The licensee has reviewed internal station records and documentation provided to us by program suppliers for compliance with the FCC's commercial limits in children's programs (47 C.F.R. Section 73.670) and the licensee hereby certifies that the station fully complied with these limits for all programs specifically designed for children ages twelve (12) and under. In addition to the programs listed in this report, the station broadcast the following programs specifically designed for children ages twelve (12) and under:(NONE) The Commission should note that due to CBS sports coverage on our 8.1 stream, All In with Laila ALi and Game Changers with Kevin Frazier were pre-empted on 08/30/2014. Both were made good in their second homes on 08/17/2014 at Noon and 12:30 p.m. respectively. On our 8.2 stream on 08/20/2014, 3 Wide Life did not air properly and was made good in its second home at Noon on 09/13/2014. Also on 8.2, the show ECO Company replaced 3 Wide Life and will air from this point on. As of 9/20/2014 on our 8.1 stream, Jack Hanna's Into The Wild will replace Jack Hanna's Animal Adventures.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	It is during the adolescent years that career exploration, planning, education, and decision-making begins. There is no question that a career in one of the multimedia industries is among the most popular career choices of adolescents. Although many feel their calling is for a more obvious career in acting, there are also a number of behind the screen pursuits that make for fulfilling career choices. Made in Hollywood: Teen Edition (MIH:TE) was created by Connection III Entertainment Corp. to provide career information and advice from top Hollywood professionals to 13- to 16-year-old viewers so they can explore and learn about the technical, artistic, creative, business, and administrative careers that are a part of the motion picture, television, music video, and home entertainment industries.
