Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	3 years to 7 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Inspired by the beloved works of best-selling children's author Richard Scarry, Busytown Mysteries brings the popular adventures of Busytown to preschoolers with an educational, problem-solving twist. Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
Does the Licensee identify the program by displaying throughout the program the symbol E /I?	Yes

Number of Preemptions Rescheduled	4
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	3 years to 8 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Each episode of the show features a real child, who writes for help or advice with a problem to the Doodles, three animated young members of a band. The child then enters the animated world of the Doodlenet, and sets out on an adventure with the band to find a resolution to the problem, with important life lessons imparted in the process. Each episode reinforces the lesson through a musical interlude that encapsulates the educational message. Specific educational objectives of the program include encouraging viewers to develop positive personal qualities such as honesty and initiative, and providing viewers with a basic understanding and appreciation of music. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Total times aired	13
Number of Preemptions	4
Number of Preemptions for other than Breaking News
Number of Preemptions Rescheduled	4
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	9 years to 11 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Question 7(b) and 7(c) are not applicable due to the DTV switch on June 12, 2009. Starting May 24th, 2011, WKMG covered the Casey Anthony Murder trial. This event was a high profile case that warranted daily coverage of the trial. WKMG-DT 6.2 signal carried normal daytime programming for CBS including Saturday Children's Programming. Due to the coverage, WKMG-DT 6.2 M-SU Children's Programming was pre-empted and moved to 7:00a the following day. Crawls ran over the air notifying of the change and electronic listing services were also made aware. On the days trial coverage did not air, WKMG 6.1 and WKMG-DT 6.2 aired as regularly scheduled. The trial concluded 07/07/2011 and July's Children's Shows that were affected, will be covered in the FCC 3Q 398 report. On Saturday's, CBS Children's Programming on CBS (6.1) was moved to air in time period on WKMG-DT 6.2. Listing services and CBS were notified of this change and in addition, a crawl ran every half-hour notifying viewers that they could see CBS Children's programming on our digital 6.2 channel at its normal time period. Because of the move of CBS's Children's Programming to WKMG-DT 6.2, we were unable to air or record 6.2 normal Children's Program at 10:00a (NASA 360) on 06/04/11, 06/11/11, 06/18/11 and 06/25/11 and thus did not air.

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled	WKMG 6.1 Saturday, 09:00a
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time	13
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience from	3 years to 7 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	Inspired by the beloved works of best-selling children's author Richard Scarry, Busytown Mysteries brings the popular adventures of Busytown to preschoolers with an educational, problem-solving twist. Children can follow classic characters such as Huckle, Sally and Lowly as they scour Busytown on fun-filled adventures looking for answers to life's puzzles. Each episode focuses on fostering viewers' problem solving abilities, as the characters use their skills of observation to collect facts, draw inferences from those facts, and ultimately reach conclusions. Each episode also develops vocabulary through words and concepts that are part of the episode's overall theme. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
