Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This half-hour weekly series, Sea Rescue, features the rescue, rehabilitation and, in many instances, release back into the wild of ocean wildlife. Produced for ages 13-16, Sea Rescue offers educational and entertaining television by demonstrating the welfare and medical benefits that rescue and rehabilitation programs provide animals. Viewers will also learn that there's a reciprocal benefit: rescued animals provide valuable insight into their biology and ecology. This information adds to the pool of knowledge necessary to conserve threatened and endangered species. Each week, Sea Rescue will leave its audience inspired by the real-life stories of the featured animals and rescuers, and with a fuller understanding of the rich array of sea life with which we share our planet.

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	Various Children's E/I programs were pre-empted on KSAT-TV due to extensive ABC World Cup coverage. The affected Children's E/I programs were made good in their second home, and promoted accordingly. On 06/14/14, Children's E/I programs were aired on KSAT-TV's secondary channel, 12.2, MeTV, in their regularly scheduled time periods, and promoted accordingly. KSAT-TV broadcasts numerous public service announcements designed for children. These include public service announcements produced by ABC, as well as, locally produced and syndicated public service announcements regarding issues of health, education, substance abuse, and cultural and artistic endeavors. These public service announcements are part of a general rotation and run in all dayparts.
