| Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | Prime Time Christian Broadcasting, Inc. continues to address childrens issues through support of local groups that deal with families and children. These groups include church youth groups, civic organizations, and specialty groups such as Teen Challenge. Support for these groups is done through advertisement of special and/or fund raising events and public service announcements, as well as occasional local programming specifically geared toward these groups and their objectives. Additionally. Prime Time Christian Broadcasting makes part-time job opportunities available for young people who have been involved with Teen Challenge and/or Mission Messiah and are seeking employment after their release from the programs. |
