Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This TV, 23.3: "Wild About Animals" is a reality science series that is produced for children in the 13-16 age group, and is designed to educate, inform and entertain those viewers. Through the use of dramatic, stunning footage combined with an engaging and entertaining narrative, the show creates a general tone that is particularly effective in connecting to the target audience. The level of detail in each show is also appropriate and the segments move quickly from one topic to the next. At the end of the show, to provide some closure, visuals include highlights of the program. This technique takes the educational aspect of the program to another level as it can stimulate discourse following viewing, and would be useful if the program were to be viewed in a classroom setting. Overall, the depth of information conveyed is quite impressive. Also host Mariette Hartley is excellent, and has the ability to create a connection with the audience based on trust, compassion and dedication to education.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This TV, 23.3: "Awesome Adventures" is an educational and informational adventure travel program that targets the 13 to 16 year old age group, but is also a highly entertaining program for a more general audience. With a host and the use of young guides from a specific locale, it is ideal for the "tween/teen" market. This program is fast paced, and provides information which encompasses many aspects of the location. It is produced in a contemporary style, and features both historical and cultural information, in addition to an action adventure. The introduction about the specific food, music, geography, history and environmental issues as well as popular recreational activities of the locale, make for a most entertaining program.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	This TV, 23.3: "WHADDYADO", a series designed to educate, inform, inspire and entertain, does an exceptional job educating teenagers. It provides an excellent opportunity for teenagers to learn life lessons they likely are otherwise not open to receiving. What makes this show such a valuable resource for teenagers is that it exposes them to real life situations. The reenactments give the audience the opportunity to develop important lifesaving skills. By exposing the audience to perilous situations that have actually occurred, then, using interviews with the participants, and instructions from experts, teenagers are shown what the proper reaction should be when faced with similar life-threatening circumstances. "WHADDYADO" also works to minimize a viewer's belief in their immortality, a priceless lesson for all teenagers. In the moral dilemma segments, teenagers are given a scenario which raises moral questions. They are then provided with an expert's analysis of the costs and benefits of various courses of action. By tackling these challenging issues head on, this show works to help develop the moral fiber of our nation's teenagers.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	THIS TV, 23.3: "Wild About Animals" is a reality science series that is produced for children in the 13-16 age group, and is designed to educate, inform and entertain those viewers. Through the use of dramatic, stunning footage combined with an engaging and entertaining narrative, the show creates a general tone that is particularly effective in connecting to the target audience. The level of detail in each show is also appropriate and the segments move quickly from one topic to the next. At the end of the show, to provide some closure, visuals include highlights of the program. This technique takes the educational aspect of the program to another level as it can stimulate discourse following viewing, and would be useful if the program were to be viewed in a classroom setting. Overall, the depth of information conveyed is quite impressive. Also host Mariette Hartley is excellent, and has the ability to create a connection with the audience based on trust, compassion and dedication to education.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	THIS TV, 23.3: "WHADDYADO", a half-hour weekly series designed to educate, inform, inspire and entertain, does an exceptional job educating teenagers. It provides an excellent opportunity for teenagers to learn life lessons they likely are otherwise not open to receiving. What makes this show such a valuable resource for teenagers is that it exposes them to real life situations. The reenactments give the audience the opportunity to develop important life saving skills. By exposing the audience to perilous situations that have actually occurred, then, using interviews with the participants, and instructions from experts, teenagers are shown what the proper reaction should be when faced with similar life-threatening circumstances. "WHADDYADO" also works to minimize a viewer's belief in their immortality, a priceless lesson for all teenagers. In the moral dilemma segments, teenagers are given a scenario which raises moral questions. They are then provided with an expert's analysis of the costs and benefits of various courses of action. By tackling these challenging issues head on, this show works to help develop the moral fiber of our nation's teenagers.
