Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	During this reporting period, KAZD added 3 program providers to the multicast stream. One of the providers had no children's content, while another was airing 6 hours. One of the multicast providers decreased their children's programming content unexpectedly from six hours to three a week. Once KAZD-TV learned of this change, the station had to find additional children's programming content to air. Although able to make up some of the deficit hours, KAZD-TV will be deficit in this reporting period. Therefore, the station is making up that time in the current (3rd quarter) reporting period.

Mustard Pancakes takes place in the comfortable home of singing/storytelling grandmother Courtney Campbell. Courtney shares her home with four kind-hearted and child-like puppet characters: Oogleberry Ink Dog, a scruffy and thoughtful dog; Tiny Tina Ten Toes, a free spirited beagle who loves to dance; Mo, an innocent and playful Chocolate Labrador; and Mr. D, a slightly self-absorbed cat. Combining the art of storytelling and the element of song, the series presents everyday situations in an age-appropriate way to help children learn about solving life's little problems.
