Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Program Title	ANIMAL RESCUE
Origination	Syndicated
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Saturday/8-8:30 AM
Total times aired at regularly scheduled time:	12
Number of Preemptions	1
Length of Program	30 mins
Age of Target Child Audience	10 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming.	ANIMAL RESCUE showcases spectacular rescues of all types of animals and focuses on the work of dedicated individuals who treat the various creatures of the animal kingdom. The program includes safety tips and real life in-the-field experiences of professional and ordinary people taking care of, treating and helping various animals. Animal Rescue delivers the kind of information and pro-social values that are of inestimable importance in shaping the growth and character of young people. All stories are authentic and contain actual video of rescues. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children and has educating and informing children as a significant purpose. However, we do not count this as core children's programming because during certain times of the year this show's time period is prone to more preemption that we are not able to reschedule than we think is appropriate for core children's programming.
Does the program have educating and informing children ages 16 and under as a significant purpose?	Yes
Does the Licensee identify the program by displaying throughout the program the symbol E/I?	Yes

Does the Licensee provide information regarding the program, including an indication of the target child audience, to publishers of program guides consistent with 47 C.F.R. Section 73.673? Yes

Include any other comments or information you want the Commission to consider in evaluating your compliance with the Children's Television Act (or use this space for supplemental explanations). This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3.	The station conducted the following tours for groups of children 16 years old and younger during this Quarter: On April 15, 2011 two separate tours were conducted, one for Mirror Lake School Video Class, 12 students ages 11-14; and one for Bowman Elementary School, 15 students ages 6-12. On Monday, June 13, a tour was conducted for the Camp Fire Girls program. There were five girls between the ages of 8 and 10.
