This may include information on any other noncore educational and informational programming that you aired this quarter or plan to air during the next quarter, or any existing or proposed non-broadcast efforts that will enhance the educational and informational value of such programming to children. See 47 C.F.R. Section 73.671, NOTES 2 and 3. | In addition to the regular programming, during the 4th quarter of 2014, WGGB continues to air various PSA's that are aimed at young people. Here are a few examples: Several PSA's dealing with the benefits of support to help kids read, encourages the prevention of dropping out of school, Autism awareness, promoting local libraries, childhood obesity, how to keep your children safe, and how to be a good father. WGGB's community initiative known as the "40 Force" did a special report on how to protect children from predators and also how to protect families from the flu. We also continue to air segments called "Honor Roll" which highlights all the good that is going on in our local schools from a unique program, to a fund-raiser, to a class or student excelling in their classroom. Meteorologists continue to visit local schools to discuss weather through the end of the school year. And give tours to children explaining weather and broadcasting. Meredith Corporation only certifies for the period after consummation (i.e. 11/1/2014). |
